Lisa was a member of the Arizona State Women's golf team (1998-2002) and started playing golf at the tender age of 3 in Reading, England. At the age of 15 she won the Great Britain and Ireland Weetabix Age Group Championships and at the age of 17 won the English Ladies Under 21's and Under 23's Championships. She turned professional in 2002 and competed on the West Coast Ladies Tour and the Duramed Futures Tour.

Lisa is a member of the LPGA teaching and club professional division and is a lead instructor for Junior Golf Success, an after school child enrichment program. Lisa teaches at Ahwatukee Country Club in Phoenix and The Duke at Rancho El Dorado in Maricopa.

Lisa's passion and excitement for the game rubs off on her students as she inspires them to enjoy the challenges golf brings and learn from every experience. Lisa works with her students to develop all the skills necessary to be their best. She emphasizes good technique to produce maximum power and consistency and to stay injury free. As well as, course management, mental focus, emotional management and short game skills. She also provides mentorship to all her students, helping them as a golfer and a person.

Lisa offers greatly reduced rates on private and group lessons for 5-11 year olds and 12-18 year olds. Lisa also runs several junior clinics and camps throughout the year. For more information you can view Lisa's website at www.golfbylisa.com.
