

Penny Pulz

Penny Pulz is a 2 time LPGA Champion, bringing her tour experience to her coaching and teaching career of 14 years. She has been named Top 50 Teachers 2008 and 2004. Having grown up through her junior golf, Penny is dedicated to training and welcoming younger golfers. Regular junior golf sessions and private lessons are available as well as specific training for those desiring scholarship opportunities. She teaches all golfers, from casual to competitive.

Penny's intensive curiosity of the golf swing, its mechanics and its mental discipline have culminated in her desire for all golfers to benefit from the top training advantages she has experienced throughout both of her golf careers. Penny is the Head Golf Professional at Sun City Country Club, Sun City, Arizona.

Penny presents The Penny Pulz Golf Academy, her indoor training facility. She passionately brings her scope of golf training connecting physical golf skills and golf equipment with mental focus training by means of the academy's Brain Room. She has developed specific programs for junior students and senior golfers, with an emphasis on wellness to keep senior golfers injury free, continuing in their game and living longer. The Academy presents golf training with today's technologies and techniques; combining action from the sports world with research from the medical world.

With Penny's quick Australian wit, she presents her teaching and golf academy with a great sense of fun combined with a rich knowledge of golf for all ages and abilities. www.pennypulzgolf.com
